About the Kyodo News

"Kyodo News acquired part ownership of NNA, accordingly NNA joined the Kyodo News Group in 2011.

Kyodo News was founded as a nonprofit cooperative organization consisting of NHK and other newspaper publishers in 1945. It aimed to widely distribute domestic and international news in an accurate and impartial manner, thereby contributing to easy access of information to the population. It also intended to contribute to the international understanding and cooperation.

The Kyodo News has been covering domestic and international stories since its inception in 1945. It edits and distributes articles, photos, and footage to newspaper publishers as well as to commercial broadcasters and the international media. Its articles are distributed not only in Japanese but also in English, Chinese and Korean, making it a leading Asia-based news agency."
